Dear Mr. Matthan

In reply to your demi-official letter No.475, dated the 22nd November. I write to say that no special arrangements are being made for Officers of the Mysore State to witness the Review of of Troops by His Excellency the Viceroy on the 28th instant. An enclosure is being reserved for Civil and Military Officers and their families for which tickets may be obtained from the Brigade Headquarter Office, and I understand applications must be made either in person or by messenger. as no tickets will be sent by post. If the Dewan desires to attend the parade a place will be reserved for him in the special enclosure which is being reserved for Her Excellency

Yours sincerely
